Happy TGFI!!

A quick note on your patio work. Building 1 patio cement work was completed yesterday. Building 4 patios should be completed today, if not, vendor will return tomorrow (yes on Sat. – at no extra charge) to complete cement work.

Vendor states B1 patios should be all set to use on Saturday but watch out for wet looking spots. B4 patios should be ready to use on Sunday, again watch out for wet looking patches.

Patio floor painting will be done sometime next week, weather and schedule permitting. Vendor will move your belongings off patio to paint if there is not a lot of small pots and items.

Please reply to this email with questions or comments. Have a nice weekend!
